The Great Great Great Great Grandson comes to call

The home of Mr. and Mrs. Carl Connors, on Middlesex Avenue, has real history. There are many things that can be related about the home, and perhaps the most important is that it was the home for 53 years of the Rev. Isaac Morrill, pastor of the Church of Christ, Congregational, in Wilmington.

Mr. Morrill was the Chaplain to the Massachusetts Forces, at the siege of Ticonderoga, in the French and Indian War and endured all the rigors of that winter siege.

On Lexington Day Mr. Morrill was again an active Patriot, and he ended the day with the Minister from Billerica, escorting the Bedford Minister to the British lines. The Bedford Minister was suspected of having Tory inclinations. It was Mr. Morrill who delivered the Dedication Address at Lexington Green five years after the Battle of Lexington.

Mr. Morrill lived for 53 years in the home that is now that of Mr. and Mrs. Carl Connors. Daniel Snow built the home in 1708. He was a miller. He sold it to Capt. Kendall Pearson, another miller, in 1723, and Capt. Pearson sold it in or about 1737 to Benjamin Lewis, who, in turn sold it to the Rev. Mr. Morrill.

Mr. Morrill lived there until his

Compugraphic cleared for major expansion

The way has been cleared for the Compugraphic Corporation of Wilmington to construct another building, off Industrial Way, in South Wilmington. The Wilmington Planning Board, Tuesday evening settled a discussion of months by a three to one vote, allowing the world famous manufacturer of electronic typesetting machinery to proceed with construction of a planned 98,000 square foot building - its fifth in Wilmington. Only a minor technicality remains to be cleared, before the Wilmington Board of Appeals, regarding the parking lot for employees.

DISCUSSING THE COMPUGRAPHIC PLAN: 1. Fred DiCenso, owner of much of the property on Industrial Way in South Wilmington is shown discussing plans with Bill Hanlon of the Planning Board (back to camera). Also back to the camera is Evelyn Burke, clerk, and Danny Gillis, selectman and speaker.

Plans for the new building have been discussed for several years, and discussions with the Planning Board have been going on for several months. Tuesday's discussion lasted over an hour before the final vote was taken.

The plan which the Planning Board voted to sign was the sixth or seventh which had been presented, during past months. There were several difficulties, one of which was that there were lots of land involved formerly owned by different owners, with consequent differences in banking backgrounds.

Robert Leahy, acting Chairman, was the person who finally made the suggestion that if a former property line were to be erased there would be no objections on other parts by the Planning Board although others had pointed out this fact, earlier in the evening. When Mr. DiCenso agreed to this the board could then take their vote - and did.

The new 98,000 square foot building will provide employment for an additional four to 500 people, according to Forbes of Compugraphic. The firm is currently employing 1750 persons, an increase of 330 during the past year. Carl Dantas, Executive Vice President of Compugraphic told the Town Crier that construction would start as soon as possible. The new building will be "behind" the present 138,000 square foot main building off Industrial Way.

North Reading girl killed in accident at Woburn St. Bridge

Three North Reading girls were bicycling, yesterday shortly after 5 pm at the Woburn Street Bridge over Route 93. A Pontiac GTO struck at least two of the bicycles. Two girls were knocked over the fence, or through it, to fall 37 feet to the paving of Route 93, below. The third was not injured.

All three had their homes on Redmond Avenue, in North Reading, which is off Park Street and about one mile from the scene of the accident.

Nancy Freeman, 14, was killed. She had fallen onto the high speed land of Route 93. Injured and taken to the Massachusetts General Hospital by the Wilmington ambulance was Karen Rose, 15, who also fell to the paving of Route 93.

Joanne Rose, 13, was uninjured. Bystanders who arrived at the scene after the accident identified the car as the property of Ray Noel of 6 Glenview Avenue. It is not known to this paper who was driving the car, but it was not Noel. The youth who was driving has been charged with driving without a license and manslaughter, by the State Police.

Skidmarks showed that the car had been coming from the North Reading side of the bridge toward the Woburn Street School. It had crossed over the road, at the time of the accident, and ended up projecting over the bridge guard, headed toward Boston.

The girls were apparently bicycling in the opposite direction, on the right hand side of the road. It is not certain whether or not the third girl was involved in the accident. Parts of at least two bicycles could be seen under the car.

ROBERT ROMANO TO ADDRESS WOBURN ST PAC

Robert Romano, director of language arts K-12, Wilmington will address the Tuesday, May 21st meeting of the Woburn Street School Parent Advisory Council. He will complete the list of guest speakers for this year.

At the most recent meeting Cleo Predette spoke the group on "Chapter 766" and its impact on the Wilmington School system; Project S.E.E.M., and explained to parents the role of the Core Evaluation Team.

During the past several months Walter Pierce, supt. of schools, Dr. Carol Sager, director of reading and Joseph Connelly have also addressed the group.

Memorial Day Veterans Day Committee

The 1974 Wilmington Memorial/Veterans Day Committee is meeting every Wednesday at the American Legion Hall, Middlesex Avenue, at 8 pm. All persons or organizations interested in participating in the Memorial Day parade and exercises are invited to attend and make arrangements for doing so.

Precinct pickup saved a lot of gas

The pick-up, clean-up campaign of the past ten days in Wilmington has left the Superintendent of Highways, Bob Palmer, a happy man.

This year, for the first time, pick-ups of household rubbish were scheduled by precincts. The results, says Bob, was more work done with fewer trucks, and less repeat runs.

Four trucks, a loader, and a catch basin truck were used daily all working in the same precinct.

The loader used was as to be expected, but it is surprising to hear that the catch basin cleaner was used, - not to clean catch basins, but to hoist rubbish into the trucks.

Palmer has no idea of how much rubbish was hauled to the public dump, but he knows the trucks were busy all day long, for seven and a half days.

And - he saved a lot of gas, as compared to the use of previous years.

Applications for Booster Scholarships

The Wilmington High School Boosters are now receiving applications for scholarships, from High School students who have participated in athletics.

Four scholarships are being offered this year, with a total value of $1500.

Applications should be mailed to B. Savota, 9 Dorothy Avenue, Wilmington, Mass.

Applications are also being received for the Kevin Nolan Scholarship. They should be mailed as soon as possible.

No Planning Board Meeting next week

The Wilmington Planning Board is now back in the old Mildred Rogers School. It met there Tuesday evening.

As was to be suspected there had been some vandalism, but not too much. The canopy of the door was gone, as was the handrail up to the steps. There is no longer a light for the parking lot, but all that was minor. Again there was room in an office for the visitors to spread out maps and plans without digging each other with their elbows.

The big business of the evening was the Compugraphic Plans, elsewhere related.

Another item, is that there will be no meeting next week. There just won't be enough members to call a quorum - so why have a meeting?

There was an enquiry about the end of Washington Avenue. A new real estate sub-division is going in, to come out on Glen Road. Is not the end of Washington Avenue not accepted?

The answer acknowledged that the end of Washington Avenue is not accepted, but that in the developer's plans he has agreed to pave that street, as far as Stone Street.

Another enquiry came from the Building Inspector. On Park Street trees are being cut down on the old Anderson Farm, in the Flood Plain. The developer of the land claims he has the right to do so.

This brought on a big discussion, until Bill MacKinnon checked out with the Conservation Commission. The board was then told that the developer has the right to cut, and to fill land, in accordance with the plans he had submitted.

The last item for the evening was an inspection of preliminary plans of Blain Porter, Chevrolet dealers, from Reading, who are moving into Wilmington at Lowell Street Park.

The preliminary plan shows a building to be about 70 by 80 feet, and parking space for about 621 cars, on five to eight acres.

Senior staff named for town day camp

The Tewksbury Community Day Camp has selected its senior staff. The arts and crafts program will be headed by Tewksbury residents Mrs. Christina Cabral and Mrs. Susan Appleby.

Mrs. Cabral is currently working as a learning disabilities tutor in the Littleton Schools and has been a Girl Scout leader and Sunday School teacher. Mrs. Appleby also is in scouting and teaches Sunday School at the Congregational Church.

A program is being developed for each week of the camp, which will run July 8 through August 2. The first week will be Indian week, and Indian crafts will be emphasized.

"Spirit of '76" will be the theme of week two. Tewksbury's past heritage will be explored through crafts.

Week three will focus on nature lore. Campers will learn about local plants, flowers and animals through art projects.

Indian lore will be the theme of week four, puppet shows and costume plays will be a part of each week's program. The camp also hopes to have a pet day. Brian Bagby, studying at Texas A & M, will be in charge of the nature study program. Animal study and specimen collecting at the Harold Parker State Forest will be the focus here. Careful supervision will ensure that the campers learn the safe way to enjoy the outdoors.

Group and individual games and activities will be supervised by Bruce Appleby, who is a teacher and coach at Reading Memorial High School. Appleby has also been a coach in Tewksbury's Youth Baseball program. Parachute games, horseshoes, volleyball and whiffle ball are just some of the activities being planned.

Throughout the program the emphasis will be on fun and exploration under careful supervision. Camp brochures and applications are available through the Tewksbury Congregational Church office (851-9411) or the Director, Mrs. Joan Graham (851-7670). Enrollment is limited, and all applications must be in by June 1, 1974.

Bloodmobile calls May 24th

The Red Cross Bloodmobile will call on the people of Wilmington a week from Monday, at the K of C Hall from 2 to 7:45 pm. The K of C Hall is located behind St. Thomas Church.

Every resident of Wilmington is involved in the Blood Drive. There will be 100% coverage for the people of Wilmington for one full year if 700 pints of blood are collected.

Any able bodied person, 18 to 65, may donate. Seventeen year olds can give if they have their parents permission. A person with a history of malaria can give providing there has been no attack for three years.

There will be twelve Wilmington nurses to assist, and the waiting lines will be shorter than heretofore. People who wish to donate are still advised to make an appointment. You will get special treatment. Call 658-4832 or 658-2541.

Donations may be credited to any organization the donor cares to name. The town will also get credit. This is, in a certain degree, a double coverage, but it is worth while.

The motto this year is: "Give Blood - It was meant to circulate."

Good Guy Jim Miceli

Quite by accident Jim Miceli landed in the Good Guy column, last week. The "stripper" whose job it was to put pictures in their proper place in the printing of this paper, put Jim where Carl and Hazel Backman should have been, in the front page pictures. That made Jim Miceli a Good Guy - the only Selectman of Wilmington ever to land in that particular column.

By this it is meant that the Good Guy award, an annual event, in Wilmington does not go to politicians. It is meant to recognize the common ordinary guy (male or female) who does his work for the community.

A few words, however, are appropriate. Ever since Jimmy has decided that he would not run for state office he has almost been a "Good Guy." Things have been much more pleasant on the Wilmington Board of Selectmen. Things are being accomplished.

Gone is the politics. Gone is the resentment that used to be shown. When Mr. Miceli was elected chairman, a few weeks ago, he promised "No Politics."

So far he has kept his word.

Bits & Pieces

Joe Beaton Jr., of King Street, Wilmington ought to be home arriving in the middle of June according to the Latest News. Joe is taking a "college trip" around the world on the SS Universe Campus, a vessel of Chinese (Taiwanese) registry and is at the present writing in the South Atlantic, off the coast of Africa.

Some of Joe's comments have reached this paper, the absolute poverty that he saw in Djakarta, Java, and in India was to him a surprise. The poverty of Djakarta is, he says, an aftermath of the crazy dictatorship of Subarno.

Joe had a day to do the wild animal life, in Kenya, and his visit to Mozambique was cut short - to just one day, because of the revolution in Portugal. He reports that all the air-conditioning on the ship went kaput, while it was in Colombo, in the country that used to be known as Ceylon, and is now Sri Lanka. Everyone was put up in hotels because of the air-conditioning.

He was somewhat surprised to learn that, of the countries he has visited, the most local pride and patriotism was to be found in Taiwan, now known as the Republic of China. In other places the natives just don't care - but in Taiwan everyone is proud of living in that country.

There are 520 students on the ship, and the cruise is planned to take four months.

Interested in Fish? - The organization that has a lending hand for others - Fish volunteers and interested persons will learn more about Fish, in a luncheon next Tuesday, 11:30 am to 1:30 pm in Hugh's Lighthouse in Cohasset. The cost is to be $3, and many New England Fish organizations are to be present, to discuss new ideas and common problems. Locally drives does not belong to Jack Cushing. There is a long tale there.

Jack is active in the Wilmington High School Boosters, which annually provides scholarships to high school seniors. The Boosters had a booth, for serving hot dogs, etc. in the athletic field at the High School. Little boys, presumably, well someone, kept breaking into that booth and destroying things.

So the Boosters got a mobile truck, with a little kitchen in it - and not only can they service such things as football games, they can also service the Annual Clean-Up in Wilmington.

Smart eh? Just drive the old booth home at night!

One lives and learns. The "welcome wagon" referred to in this paper in the past two weeks, with reference to the clean-up

STAR WATERY: Twelve year old Paul Watery of Burlington Avenue is a student at the Shawheen School, and he had a fine time Sunday morning, being a waiter, at the annual May Breakfast at the Congregational Church in Wilmington.

PAUL BOVA JR.: Received the first catch, by Wilmington Little League in its 1974 season. The Little League catcher plays with the Chisholm Indians. On the mound, delivering the ball, as he has for the past 22 years was Rep. Fred F. Cole.

Wood Carvers' Alley
Wood carvers are going to exhibit, Saturday, at the Burlington Mall. Members of the New England Chapter of the National Woodcarvers Association will gather there, for their second annual exhibit. There will be thousands of carvings on display, from 9:30 am to 9:30 pm.

All sorts of carvings - whales and fish, birds and trays, ship carvings and chess sets. You name it - it will be there.

Minute Men
The last Civil War soldier in Wilmington was John Simpson, who was a Master of the Grange, and, of course, belonged to the Grand Army of the Republic, Reading chapter - the the GAR being the organization for Civil War soldiers who wore blue during that conflict.

Mr. Simpson, when he died, willed eight rifles of Civil War vintage from the Reading GAR to the Wilmington Post of the American Legion. The Wilmington Post was very proud of them - special rack, and all that sort of stuff, and then someone broke in one night and stole those rifles.

Why bring that up?
Well, the Wilmington Company of Minute Men are meeting tonight for the first time in the barn of the Harnden Tavern - which is probably just as fine a place as there could be for a bunch of Minute Men to meet.

And - in case anyone gets ideas, the Minute Men are not going to make a special rack for the Revolutionary War type guns - their flintlocks. Instead they will be taking their guns home, every night, as every good Minute Man should do, anyway.

The Minute Men are looking for more members to their company - they seek to recruit it to "war strength" - the strength that it was on the 19th of April, 1775, in the fight at Merriam's Corner. The 200th anniversary is only a year away - and who can tell, maybe those British will come again!

The Wilmington Minute Men use a copy of the old Pine Tree Shilling as a proof of membership, and if any recruit should show up tonight, say at 8 pm, who knows - he might find himself in possession of one of those old coins.

WOMEN'S CLUB LUNCHEON MAY 16

Escorted to the altar by her father, the bride was radiant in a tiered bouffant gown of chantilly lace that featured a Sabrina neckline and long, fitted sleeves. The attached chapel length train was caught at the waist with a peu de soi bow. A dramatic profile of lace and seed pearls held her silk illusion elbow length veil. She carried a bouquet of white and pink roses and stephanotis.

WILMINGTON LITTLE LEAGUE

Majors: The White Sox opened the season with two wins to take a hold on first place. The timely hitting of Fran Turner and Tim Driscoll led to the White Sox 8-7 extra inning triumph over the Twins, despite a Twins' homer by Billy Murphy.

The White Sox topped the Angels, 6-2, behind the clutch relief pitching of David Bratt and a home run by Mark Young. Angels' pitcher Roy Bromander struck out 14 Pale Hose hitters. Bromander hit a round-tripper in the other Angels loss, 10-4, to the Orioles, with Earl Paulsen pitching a fine game for the Orioles.

The Indians beat the Orioles, 7-6, as Steve Wingate pitched a no-hitter for the Indians, and Mike Miller and Jeff LeGault provided the offensive punch. Russ Daley tossed a three-hitter for a 6-1 Red Sox victory over the Indians. Tim Moran pitched the Tigers over the Yankees, 6-3, with Sal Carbone and Mike Moran coming up with big hits. The Yankees overwhelmed the Twins 10-1. Frank Sargent sparked the hitting and Alan Capodanno struck out 11 and gave up only three hits in picking up the victory.

Minors: The Mets opened the season with identical 17-7 pastings of the Giants and the Braves. The Pirates scored 15 quick runs and held on to beat the Cubs, 15-10. The Dodgers came from behind to beat the Cards, 10-7, as Richie McHugh and Paul Campbell outpitched Bob Morris.

The Cards built a 7-1 lead as a homer and triple by Paul Lina brought in five runs. The Dodgers won with an eight run third inning, with key hits by Paul Elstrom and Billy Robinson. Errors sabotaged a fine pitching performance by the Giants' Andy Leverone in the Giants 9-8 loss to the Redlegs. Jim Trigitto belted a home run for the losers.

Farms: The Owls unveiled a powerhouse as they bombed the Hawks, 24-5, and the Ravens, 25-1. The Dolphins nipped the Hawks, 10-9.

Coaches needed: the Wilmington Little League needs men to volunteer their services as managers and coaches. There is a special need for men to coach teams in the Senior Minor League which it is hoped will begin play by the middle of May.

Anyone interested, especially the fathers of those boys who want to play, should contact Dick Medeiros, 658-6817.

WILMINGTON SOFTBALL LEAGUE

Sun. May 5: The K of C scored five runs in the bottom of the opening frame and went on to belt Big W, 14-6 in the seasonal lid-lifter at Town Park. Lauro Kumm led the Knights fourteen hit attack with three hits to back the pitching of Jim Hachey. Losing hurler Ralph DeLisle had a pair of hits and two RBI's to pace the Ford offense.

Brewsters came from behind three times before slipping past Compugraphic, 8-7. The losers had leads of 1-0, 5-4 and 7-6, but could not hold on. Jim Early led the Brewster attack with two hits and a pair of RBI's, while Joe Schier slammed a pair of doubles for Compugraphic.

The Compugraphic B's fared much better than their counterparts as they whipped McNamara Tire, 6-4 in a Recreation Division encounter. Winning hurler Paul Canon allowed only six hits while walking only one and came up with a key triple in a three run fourth inning outburst. Hawk Hamilton took the loss for McNamara.

DRC coasted past Sweetheart, 9-0 behind the three hit pitching of Tolman and Pennell. Tolman hurled one hit ball over the first four frames, retiring the first eleven batters, while Pennell was equally as strong over the final three stanzas allowing only two singles. Tom Lewis led the DRC offense with three hits.

The Sweetheart A's topped Smithcraft, 11-5 behind the hitting of Ed Doherty (a three-run homer) and Dennis DeMaggio (three hits including a pair of doubles) and the three hit pitching of Buzzy Couillard. Buzzy got himself in hot water on many occasions due to his poor control as he walked 12. Losing hurler Paul O'Donnell was shelled in the third frame after giving up eight runs on seven hits. Art Dello Iacono finished up allowing only three runs and seven hits in a five inning relief stint.

In the final game of the day, Miceli ripped Stephan, 10-7 as Ken Sarchione knocked in four runs to support the pitching of Ollie Olson. Tom Sloper slammed out three hits for the losers. Paul Burke took the loss giving up all ten Miceli runs in four innings.

Mon. May 6: Big W got into the win column for the first time in a convincing 17-4 win over Lipton in the evening's opening encounter. Vin Shano (four for five including four RBI's) and Jim Ritchie (three for four) led the Ford seventeen hit assault. Bill Downs had a pair of hits for Lipton. Bob Stewart picked up the win spinning a neat four-hitter, while John Rose took the loss.

In the second game of the night, Jay-Dee routed Deming Way, 19-5 as Joe Langone drove in six runs. Jay Tighe picked up the easy win allowing only six hits in his five inning stint. Gerry O'Reilly had a pair of hits for Deming. Ted Wicks was the losing hurler.

An unbelievable 15 run first inning provided McNamara with their margin of victory in a 20-10 rout of Scully. Paul Fullerton led the Tire club with four hits. Bob Monteiro was the complete game winner, while Frank Yentile took the loss.

WILDCAT TALES

Baseball nine halts seven game skid

The WHS baseball squad snapped their seven game tailspin as they beat Lawrence Central High, 10-7. In other recent action, the locals were handed two losses on their home field by Chelmsford and Austin Prep.

Wed. May 1: Coach Gillis' squad could not hold onto a 4-3 sixth inning margin as the Wildcats allowed the Lions six runs in the last frame of the contest to acquire their sixth loss of the season dropping the game by a score of 9-4. Losing hurler Barry Foster, who had whiffed three batters, walked only one, and yielded just three hits thus far, simply blew up in the final frame and allowed six runs on six hits, four of which were earned runs. Bob Cheney pitched to two batters in the relief stint.

Bob Stewart and Tom Woods led the Wilmington hitting attack with each of the seniors picking up two base hits on three times at bat. Stewart also picked up three RBI's, while Woods added the other.

Fri. May 3: Errors once again plagued the varsity nine as they dropped their seventh game of the season to co-educational Austin Prep, 5-3. Chris Rounds, Bob Cheney, and John Harrison each saw duty on the mound and combined their efforts to allow only five hits to the Cougars, but Wilmington committed four blunders which accounted for three of Austin's runs.

Bob Stewart kept his hitting streak alive driving in one run on two singles. Tom Woods, Tom Bromander, and Jim Busby all added base hits to total the five Wildcat hits.

Jim Griffin hurried the win for the Cougars allowing just five hits in this initial start. Austin wrapped up the game on a third frame explosion where Coach Scanlon's nine knotted three runs on hits by Griffin, Bob Becotte and Ed Morsowski.

The junior varsity squad slaughtered their counterparts from Austin, 9-1.

SOOT REMOVERS

Soot removers are intended to free heating surfaces of the furnace or boiler, the smoke pipe and the chimney from soot.

Certain metallic chlorides, put directly onto the soot, are used for this purpose. At the end of the heating season, all heating surfaces of a furnace should be cleaned thoroughly of soot, ash, and other residue. The soot pipe of a furnace should be inspected for holes or perforations. The inside of the furnace should be cleaned as well.

School Committee
meets tonight with Shawsheen PAC

The Wilmington School Committee will hold its regular meeting on Thursday, May 9 (tonight) at 8 pm at the Shawsheen Elementary School on Route 129. A portion of the meeting will be given over to the Parent Advisory Committee from the Shawsheen Elementary School and the Committee will attempt to answer various questions and concerns presented by that group.

In other business, the School Committee will consider a tuition rate for the summer school program and they will consider applications for the position of administrator of non-instructional personnel and administrative services. Other proposals which will be discussed by the Committee will include revised utilization of SHARE personnel in the schools; the establishment of a regional audio-visual cooperative sponsored by the Merrimack Education Center and a proposal from the Northeast Regional Center, State Department of Education, to create a demonstration center for early childhood education in Wilmington. The Committee will also elect some new teachers for the 1974-75 school year.

The next regular School Committee meeting will be on Thursday, May 16th at the North Intermediate School. The public is invited to attend all School Committee meetings.

To attend workshops

Teacher Joe Beaton, Lisa Branzetti and Willis Lyford.

Miss Lisa Branzetti, a 12th grade student at Wilmington High School, and Willis Lyford, a junior have been selected to attend workshops as representatives of Wilmington High School, this summer.

Lisa, the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Branzetti of 7 Draper Drive will attend a week long workshop in Washington D.C. She was chosen in a competition with the twenty top students of the 11th grade.

Besides being an outstanding student, Lisa is very active in a number of student affairs, and she has completed, through the eleventh grade, five Social Studies courses in each of which she has received a very high average.

The workshop in Washington will include daily dialogue meetings with National Leaders, emphasizing ethical standards, new direction and revitalization of the American political system; daily discussions with Senators, Congressmen, cabinet members and officials of the government; and Embassy and press briefings, White House receptions and mock Congressional sessions.

The outstanding students, including Lisa, are from all parts of the United States as guests at the Congressional workshops.

Willis Lyford, a junior, son of Mr. and Mrs. Willis Lyford of Middlesex Avenue, will represent the community at Boys' State, in June, at Assumption College in Worcester. The Boys' State Representative is sponsored by the Wilmington Post 136, American Legion, John Winters, Commander. The purpose of the program is to educate young people in the duties, rights and responsibilities of American citizenship.

At the conference Lyford will have an opportunity to meet students from various cities and towns in the Commonwealth. These meetings often create permanent friendships.

The activities, which include election and appointment of officials in a typical Massachusetts town, will be followed by discussion of budgets, an E town affairs, election of key State officers, a discussion of bills and other legislation, and the enactment of laws. The course is designed to promote friendliness and cooperation.

The selection of the representatives rests on two criteria: scholastic ability and extracurricular activities. In the opinion of the committee Lyford had the best overall qualifications of the students who competed.

Firefighters will remove discarded
refrigerator doors

With spring clean-up in mind, many people will be discarding old refrigerators. Refrigerators are potential killers.

The Wilmington Fire Fighters Local 1370 of the International Association of Fire Fighters, has voted unanimously to begin a campaign to remove doors from discarded refrigerators. The recent tragedy in Lynn, in which two children suffocated in a discarded refrigerator, brings to light the very real danger of these harmless-looking spring clean-up outcasts.

This service is being offered free of charge by your fire fighters, and the success of this program will depend on your willingness to take advantage of the program. If you wish to have a refrigerator door removed, call the fire department business phone - 658-3346.

A fire fighters' job is the protection of life and property and the Wilmington Fire Fighters Local 1370 IAAF has taken it upon itself to provide this service, and make Wilmington a little safer.

Aside from removing refrigerator doors, the fire fighters' Local 1370 also distributes invalid stickers, and very soon the "Tot Fitter" program will be initiated. Watch for an article announcing this program in the near future.

Telephone numbers are: To report a fire - 658-3300; ambulance - 658-3300; and for business, 658-3346.
